

Afternoon Breakout: Diet and Nutrition

Topics to be discovered:

- nutrition for cancer prevention
- nutrition during cancer treatment(general)
- nutrition for survivors

A healthy food dish will be prepared, and samples given out

Nicole Ackerman, MS, RD, LD, CNSC

Presbyterian Jorgensen Cancer Center

Nicole Ackerman graduated from UNM with a Master of Science degree in Nutrition and completed the Nutrition Support Clinician Certification Program in October of 2017. She is a Dietitian with the Jorgensen Cancer Center in Rio Rancho. Nicole has worked as a Dietitian at Presbyterian for 6.5 years.

Derrick Walker MS, RD

Masters of Science in Nutrition
Diagnostics

Stephanie Mercado

Presbyterian Wellness Intern
Graduate student at the University of New Mexico

Cancer Support Now's Annual Free Conference Living With and Beyond Cancer

In conjunction with Prostate Cancer Support Association of NM and Gynecological Cancer Awareness Project

Saturday April 28th, 2018 8:30am - 3:30pm

Location: Sandia Preparatory School 532 Osuna Rd. NE, Albuquerque, NM

Conference Registration includes, breakfast, lunch, all materials, Keynote Speaker, and 2 breakout sessions.

See www.cancersupportnow.org for online registration