We are proud to host our inaugural Hope and Healing Honors on September 24, 2016 at the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center with more than 200 guests attending.

Hope and Healing Honors is a beautiful, caring event of Cancer Support Now thanking warmhearted people who have brought hope and healing to those with a cancer experience. We will be recognizing these outstanding healthcare professionals, volunteers and individuals who have shown kindness and compassion to those touched by cancer.

Proceeds from the inaugural Cancer Support Now Honors will help further our mission to provide emotional support and educational services so that no one has to face cancer alone.

We are now seeking sponsorships from businesses, healthcare institutions and individuals. In addition to the recognition of our audience, you will receive priority attention in our media campaign and all other promotions for the event.

Will you consider being one of our sponsors for the Hope and Healing Honors? Supporting Hope and Healing Honors assists our goal to continue providing our no-cost services as well as developing our community outreach, education and advocacy programs. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

With gratitude,

Sandy Ginsburg

Cancer Support Now

Cancer Support Now (CSN) is a community of survivors reaching out, supporting, informing and advocating for survivors, their loved ones and caregivers. CSN is a membership based group of volunteers who have a personal experience of cancer, either as a survivor and/or caregiver.

Your individual or company's commitment and participation will allow CSN to continue to provide the following valuable services to the cancer community free of charge:

- * CSN offers a Helpline that is answered by a cancer survivor from 9AM to 9 PM seven days a week. The Helpline makes referrals to seven available support groups, provides one-on-one support services, advocacy and recommendations to other appropriate sources.
- * CSN's Community Cancer Navigation Program provides help in Spanish and English seven days a week to assist on a multitude of non-medical needs of the cancer community.
- * CSN's Living With and Beyond Cancer Annual Conference is a full day that includes nationally known speakers and breakout sessions presented by professional healthcare providers.
- * CSN offers groups that provide support for caregivers (family and friends) as well as those with a diagnosis. One-on-one cancer support is also provided.
- * CSN offers facilitator training for those wishing to provide peer support on a one-on-one basis or for groups.
- * CSN conducts one-on-one smoking cessation support at no cost based on the American Lung Association's evidence based Freedom from Smoking Program.

Your support and generosity is greatly needed for Cancer Support Now to continue to carry out its mission. All of these services are utilized by the cancer community. Thank you.

Cancer Support Now is planning a great Silent Auction to be held at our inaugural Hope and Healing Honors event September 24. You may not know this, but the Silent Auction helps us to continue providing no-cost services for cancer survivors and caregivers and to develop our community outreach, education and advocacy programs. It's not too early to think about how you can help. Probably you, your family members, service providers and friends have something wonderful to donate. What are some of the things we can use? Here are some ideas – by no means a complete list!

*And I hope everyone knows '...' stands for any ideas you have, and I know you have ideas! If you need donor forms for yourself or another person you can find one on our website. Be sure to make two copies for each gift – one to keep and one for Cancer Support Now's records. Also in the website is a gift certificate form to complete if you know a donor willing to give a gift but who doesn't have their own form.

As chair of this year's Silent Auction I am here to help you help Cancer Support Now. Please contact me if I can provide you with forms, ideas or help pick-up donations. If you can help me there are many things I need assistance with and would be grateful to have your support. Please contact me at 505-440-0044 or HerMAHJesty@comcast.net with any Silent Auction questions or to volunteer your help.
