

Beauty in ALL the Colors

2018!

Call for Action (Tickets, Volunteers, Sponsorships)

On Saturday, March 31st 2018, we will celebrate the survivorship of women with gynecological AND breast cancers while fundraising for the Gynecological Cancer Awareness Project by hosting our annual survivorship event, Beauty in ALL the COLORS. It is an inspiring day which includes: a fabulous fashion show with our survivors as models, a delicious lunch, and a silent auction. We have chosen to continue to work with the Hotel Albuquerque to deliver a quality event for our many guests and cancer survivors.

What we need: We rely on our generous supporters and volunteers to help us have an amazing celebration which will help women with gynecological and breast cancers through cancer treatment and beyond. We are looking towards you, as a local business owner or individual to help our event be a success. There are several options for sponsorship and volunteering available and we are proud to be a non-profit organization which can provide you with a charitable donation receipt for your contribution.

Our wishlist:

- Volunteers for day of event and event set-up the evening before.
- Items for Silent Auction (Retail Value: $40-$300) such as Art, Jewelry, Sporting or Music event tickets, Items for variety baskets, etc.
- Items for Survivor Swag Bag (approximately 60 survivors)
- Sponsors for the event.
- Sponsorship of women with breast or gynecological cancer. * All of the gynecological and breast cancer survivors who attend the event do so as our guest. We greatly appreciate any help in paying for their tickets with your sponsorship.
- Printing of event program

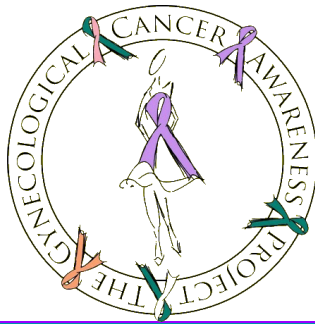

All donated items are tax-deductible. For sponsorships: your donation in excess of goods and services received (estimated value of event related cost) is tax deductible.

Why "Beauty in ALL the Colors"?

Increasing community awareness of issues around Gynecological Cancers is the foundation of GCAP. Awareness ribbons, due to their ubiquitous nature, have come to symbolize various concerns depending on the colors or the patterns used. Through GCAP activities we hope to bring more attention to ALL women's cancers which in turn leads to more support and better outcomes.
