JOIN CANCER SUPPORT NOW, INC.

Cancer Support Now, Inc. (CSNI) is a New Mexico nonprofit organization governed and supported by its members. (Note: membership is not required for participation in CSNI programs and activities.)

- Voting Members pay nominal annual dues and actively participate in the programs of the organization.
- Supporting Partners contribute $100 or more to fund the operations of the organization. Note: Supporting Partners can also be Voting Members.
- Sustaining Partners are product and service providers that are part of the economy of cancer care. Sustaining Members are legal entities like professional practices, drugstores, clinics, labs, hospitals, home healthcare agencies, insurance companies, law firms, etc.

PARTICIPATE IN CANCER SUPPORT NOW

Cancer Support Now brings together cancer survivors to make our voices heard and to provide personal support: face-to-face support in groups and one-on-one, and support by telephone and internet. Cancer Support Now needs participants, volunteers, and sponsors for local peer support groups, for an Albuquerque-metro telephone hotline, and for member-created survivorship gatherings and educational events.

PROVIDE FINANCIAL SUPPORT

CSNI expects to continue to receive most of its financial support from its members and partners. Our founders are veterans of cancer with many years of experience in nonprofit organizations. We know what it takes to support a grass-roots movement: financial contributions from many committed and involved private sources — people in treatment and longer-term cancer survivors, doctors, hospitals, clinics, insurance companies, families, home healthcare agencies, laboratories, medical equipment suppliers, transportation services, etc.: the micro-economy of cancer treatment.
